STATEMENT TAKEN BY Col. J.F. Artis, #6340 LOCATION 12701 Fair Lakes Cir, Ste 200

(PLEASE PRINT STATEMENT) Fairfax VA 22033

When the two Harlo delivery men came to my home the behavior of one of them particularly concerned me. The smaller of the two gentlemen acted very suspicious. He would not make eye contact and would not respond when spoken to. It was apparent that he could hear, but he seemed to be either high or intoxicated, and almost to be visibly ashamed of himself. My impression was that he seemed guilty of having just done something wrong and I was very relieved that my wife was not home alone when they arrived. The other gentleman seemed to want to to finish and leave our home as soon as possible.

While they were in our home they set up a dining room table we had purchased from Marlo. The clothes of the smaller deliveryman seemed to be second hand, and his hair was somewhat disheveled. He very much reminded me of a homeless person.

My wife offered them a glass of water. The larger of the two declined the offer for both of them.

They set up the table and left.

I vaguely remember that they were somewhat in a hurry to finish their deliveries for the day. They seemed to be somewhat stressed to finish and go.
